CABIN CREW

Cabin crew are also known as Flight Attendants, Air Hostess and Flight Stewards. They are primarily on board an aircraft for the passengers' safety and welfare and for their comfort. If there were no food or drink services during a flight, there would still have to be a minimum presence of cabin crew for safety, which is a legal requirement.

Because cabin crew members are the face of the airline, they are expected to excel in customer service and always remain friendly, approachable and enthusiastic with a good sense of self-presentation.

AVERAGE PER YEAR
IN UAE

The role of cabin crew can be physically demanding, and you must be prepared to be flexible to work any day of the year. This does, however, give you a perfect opportunity to get away from the repetitiveness of a normal 9 to 5 job! Cabin Crew can encounter many different situations whilst working on board an aircraft and must be an excellent team player with the ability to work on their own initiative using quick thinking and organizational skills

With a career as a flight attendant, new horizons open up, possibilities become limitless and futures soar. This career allows you to be all you can be, exploring and fulfilling your full potential to rise above the ordinary.

Frequent travel to exciting places, the glamour of the uniform and presentation, and the opportunity to make new friends all over the world are the obvious attractions of a career as a flight attendant.

SCOPE

Based on the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO), in the next 20 years, airlines will have to add 25,000 new aircraft to the current 17,000-strong commercial fleet. By 2026, the industry will need 480,000 new technicians to maintain these aircraft.

With the forecast of more new airlines and aircrafts in the future, employment of flight attendants is projected to grow 30 percent from 2020 to 2030, much faster than the average for all occupations. About 17,600 openings for flight attendants are projected each year, on average, over the decade.

INTRODUCTION TO AVIATION

The aviation industry encapsulates the development, operation and management of aircraft. While the common perception about the sector is that it's only about pilots and air hostesses, there are numerous other equally significant job options that the industry cannot function without, from in-flight trainers and aircraft maintenance engineers to baggage handlers and reservations agents.

The Aviation market in UAE is forecast under the "current trends" scenario to grow by 170% in the next 20 years.

This would result in an additional 101 million passenger journeys by 2037. If met, this increased demand would support approximately US $127.7 billion of GDP and around 1.4 million jobs.

Aviation generates benefits to consumers and the wider economy by providing speedy connections between cities. These virtual bridges in the air enable the economic flows of goods, investments, people and ideas that are the fundamental drivers of economic growth.
